

The student will be wholly integrated into the clinical teams. Moreover, involvement and active participation in regular seminars with multidisciplinary committee will be required. The student will also be expected to complete a short social pediatrics project and may elect to participate in or initiate a community advocacy project.